

Todd R. Snyder

Founder & CEO

Before founding TRS, Todd was Executive Vice Chairman of Rothschild & Co. and Co-head of the North American Restructuring advisory business. Previously, he was a Managing Director in the Restructuring and Reorganization group at Peter J. Solomon Company. Prior to joining Peter J. Solomon Company, Todd was a Managing Director at KPMG Peat Marwick in the Corporate Recovery group where he was also National Director of the Corporate Recovery Practice for Government Enterprises (regulated and privatizing industries). Prior to his move to investment banking, Todd practiced law in the Business Reorganization department of Weil, Gotshal & Manges. He is a Commissioner of The New York State Gaming Commission and a former member of New York State's Financial Restructuring Board for Local Governments. Todd serves as a director of Amplify Energy Corp. (OTCMKTS: AMPY) and previously served as a director of Midstates Petroleum Company, Inc. (NYSE: MPO), GenCorp Inc. (NYSE: GY), AMC Financial, Inc. (NASDAQ: ACFL) and EcoStim Energy Solutions (Nasdaq: ESES). Todd currently serves as a trustee for non-profit organizations BRC (f/k/a Bowery Residents Committee) and Shining Hope for Communities.

Todd has advised companies in a range of industries including:

- United Airlines
- GenOn
- Ultra Petroleum
- Princeton Alternative Funding
- YRC Worldwide
- Solutia
- Tronox
- AK Steel
- The FINOVA Group
- Zenith Electronics
- Dow Corning
- Special Metals Corporation
- Visteon Corporation
- Wheeling Pittsburgh Steel
- GAF Corp.
- Syncora Holdings Ltd.
- Emerald Casino
- OCA
- Comdisco
- Security Capital Assurance, Ltd.
- Tekni-plex
- Federal Mogul
- Recycling Industries
- Great American Recreation
- Merrill Corporation
- Globe Manufacturing
- Global Aviation
- Arcapita Bank
- Nebraska Book

Todd has been an advisor to various creditor constituencies including:

- Ad hoc group of unsecured bondholders in Nine West
- Ad hoc group of Midwest Noteholders in Windstream
- Chapter 11 trustee of Princeton
- Official Committee of Consumer Creditors in Ditech
- Secured lender of an undisclosed medical center
- First lien bank creditors of Caesar's Entertainment
- Second lien bondholders in EFIH
- Subordinated convertible debtholders in Adelphia Communications
- Bondholders in ORBCOMM Global
- Bank lenders in Renaissance Cosmetics
- UBS in the context of Finish Line -Genesco
- Official committee of unsecured creditors in Sea Launch
- Official committee of unsecured creditors in Metromedia International Group
- Official committee of trust preferred security holders in First Place Financial Corp.
- RMBS, Municipal and infrastructure holders of financial guaranty claims in FGIC
- Equity interest holders in Weatherford

Todd's career includes extensive experience with the complexities of municipal and governmental negotiations including:

- Government of Puerto Rico
- City of Hartford, CT
- Bush and Obama administrations with respect to the reorganization of the automobile industry (including General Motors, Chrysler and the related finance companies)
- Monoline insurers in the bankruptcy of the City of Detroit and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico
- PBGC in Northwest Airlines, Entergy Corporation's proposed nuclear energy spinoff, Tower Automotive and across the auto and healthcare industries
- FDIC on corporate governance matters and bridge bank strategy for certain large bank failures
- Co-lead negotiator for Governor Cuomo on New York State's renegotiation of its public sector union contracts
- Monoline insurers on select credit exposures

Todd graduated with honors from Wesleyan University where he serves on the President's Council. He received a Juris Doctor from the University of Pennsylvania Law School where he was a senior editor of the Journal of International Business Law and a Co-Chairman of the Committee on Academic Responsibility. He was a past Co-Chairman of the ABI New York Bankruptcy Conference. Todd has been an adjunct professor at New York University Law School and New York University Leonard N. Stern School of Business and has been visiting lecturer at the London Business School Masters in Finance Program and the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business.

Institutional Investor

2009
Rainmaker of the Year

globalM&Anetwork
perfecting global opportunities

2010
Restructuring Investment Banker of the Year

Turnaround of the Year 2013 – Nebraska Book